Jemčina - Echoes of hunts

The Baroque hunting seat of Černínové from Chudenice from the year 1767 was famous for its large game park and performe hunts which were held here until 1822. At the heyday of the hunts 74 horses and 160 dogs were kept here. Of interest are protected trees, small rocks and rock blocks, the so called Lanna Cross and the forest chapel in Evžen's Valley.

Stráž nad Nežárkou - Emmy Destinn's mansion

An old town with romantic surroundings and the beautiful valley of the Nežárka River. The castle in Stráž offers its visitors several guided tours, including a gallery and exhibition of the famous opera singer Emmy Destinn.

Castle and chateau, Nám. Emy Destinové 1

Emmy Destinn's monument in Stříbřec - a river with the beautiful lady's soul

Emmy Destinn was a passionate angler. At the bank of the New River near the Stříbřec Bridge, in a quiet forest retreat near a protected oak tree you can find a small granite monument. It is situated at her beloved place.

Rožmberk fish pond - South Bohemian sea

Rožmberk fish pond is so large that the curvature of the Earth can be seen on its water surface! Its dam with primeval oak trees is worth stopping at and admiring the work and wit of our ancestors. There is a 22-km long educational trail around the fish pond.

Vlkov sand pit - Sahara desert in the Třeboň region

The sand dune near Vlkov is a locality of European importance. The dune provides shelter for rare sand-loving flora and fauna. The Vlkov sand pit is part of the 7-km long educational trail Veselské pískovny (Veselí sand pits) and in summer it is a favourite place for swimmers.

Hamr - on the perdition of the naked Hussites

In the picturesque village of Hamr is the Holy Trinity Church - a precious gemstone of Renaissance church architecture. A huge fortress used to stand here back in the Middle Ages. Have you heard of the sect of Adamites - "the naked Hussites" - and their slaughter on the island near the Nežárka River?

Roseč - Mushroom Park, Elves' Paradise and Fossil Museum

In the Mushroom Park you can find interactive trails and fairy-tale characters, numerous games and competitions. A unique collection of fossils is to be found in the Fossil Museum.

Dunajovická Mountain - a pilgrimage towards far horizons

A forested hill as if created for romantic walks. A path with the stations of the cross leads you to the hilltop with the pilgrimage chapel of the Holy Cross and a spring. From the hillside at the edge of the forest you can see a lovely view of the surrounding countryside.

Lomnice nad Lužnicí - a small town amidst waters

The little church of St. Wenceslas is the only building remaining from the once powerful castle. In the Renaissance town hall in the square you can find a seasonal tourist information centre. In the vicinity of Lomnice you should not miss the national nature reserve Velký a Malý Tisý and the 6-km long educational trail Velký Lomnický - a labyrinth of small woods and larger and smaller ponds.

Information and Cultural Centre, Náměstí 5. května 133

Vítek fish pond - bridges to a fairy-tale

Two stone "flood bridges" were built over the south corner of the Vítek fish pond. They are trip destinations for lovers of both technical monuments and fairy-tales. Do you remember the actor Jan Werich playing the king in the fairy-tale Byl jednou jeden král? It was right here that he was spreading salt from sacks into the water. You can taste if it is still salty...

Pergola at St. Vitus - in the arms of a naiad

Not far from Třeboň you can relax in a quiet romantic corner at St. Vitus. St. Vitus Chapel by the fish pond Zadní Kouty was built in 1761 at the place of a wooden chapel standing near a small spring curing eye ailments. Nearby was also a wooden hermitage. At present this is a popular place for tourists, with the restaurant Pergola, and the Fish Pond Virgin Pergolina.

The north-west of the region

JINDŘICHŮV HRADEC REGION

Jindřichův Hradec - to the 15th meridian and the White Lady

TŘEBOŇ REGION

The landscape of double sky.

Memory of ages
and ancient stories reflecting on the water surfaces, life pulsating with tradition.

Romance.

Fog lying on the heath.

History revived.

A small piece of paradise,
a fairy-tale in the kingdom of the Rosenberg rose.

Protected trees.

Quiet witnesses of our transitoriness.

Sheltered bird eldorado.

Squeak of birds, croak and beats of wings.

The kingdom of dragonflies and frogs.

The smell of mud and fish,
fish scales underwater.

The world from horseback.

Waving manes, pastures, grassiness.

The mystery.

Tales, devilish howl during stormy nights.

Never-ending experiences and adventures.

Excitement, adrenaline, action.

Smile and fun.

Come and search for the treasures where no one else can see them...
